www.the Web and Your Teenager.com

Thursday, February 2, 2006
7pm – 8:30pm
OLS Family Life Center
Parents Only - Please

Ted Haigler, Ph.D of Grayson & Associates, P.C. will lead us in an informative discussion on the facts of life on the web. This session will address:

- How to talk to your child about internet safety.
- What is Internet Bullying?
- Why is Internet Bullying so prevalent among teenagers?
- How can parents teach their teenager to behave safely and responsibly on the Internet?
- What parents should watch for?
- Ways to know what sites your children are visiting.
- How to approach them if you find they are going on inappropriate sites.
- Instant Messaging – Using “Alias” names.
- Playing games online with strangers.

On Sunday, January 22nd the OLS Jr High Youth group will host Miss Andrea Dexter, OLS faculty, for “The Web - a teen perspective”. Here we will gather critical information from our children on their web habits. Dr. Haigler will compile this data to make his statistics live for our community.
